

THE TROJAN 1965

Dedication

To our friend, band instructor, and high school principal that good fortune sent our way. One who has given us of time, encouragement and valued assistance.

We consider it a privilege to have learned under your direction and it is with deep felt gratitude and devotion that we dedicate to you, Mr. G. Dale Canfield, this

Our 1965 Annual

Seniors

JANE BODE

There never was a saint with red hair.

CAROLE BAKER

I don't care how you spell my name,
I'll change it someday just the same.

JERRY BARTA

Music flows from his fingertips.

PATRICIA BOTTOMLEY

Quiet and neat, pleasant to meet.

DORIS BOWEN

The road to success is filled with women.

DAVID CALLAHAN

Give me life, liberty and a car to pursue my happiness.

SUE BURGER

Quiet---that's what the teachers think.

RONALD CHARMICHAEL

His heart is like a trolley, always room for one more.

KATHY DENGLER

Sometimes she's serious,
sometimes she's sad,
always good and never bad.

EDWARD FELTS

What I want to get out of school
most is myself.

PAM FEUERBACH

It's nice to be important, but much more important to be nice.

LAURA FEHR

No matter what the discussion, I always find room to disagree.

BARB FREDERICK

Smart men prefer blue eyes and blonde hair.

MARK HALLBERG

I never let my studies interfere with my education.

KAREN GRIMM

Her thoughts are as still as the waters.

COLLETTE HECKROTH

Active in music, basketball she adores, with talent like hers, she'll open many doors.

SUSAN HELM

She's so happy, she's so gay, she's in love so they say.

JACK HENNINGS

An all-around man with a future.

LARRY HITE

Basketball he loves to play, he'll make his mark in the world someday.

CHUCK HIX

Cut out to be an angel, but they lost the pattern.

CAROL HOLTZ

In politics and current events she's never behind; a better organizer you'll never find.

LINDA KONICEK

School breaks up my whole day.

MICHAEL KLEIN

All the great men are dying, and
I'm not feeling so well myself.

DENNY KUSEL

Never a devil, but far from a saint.

CHARLES LARSEN

It's not what I do wrong, it's what I'm caught at.

LYN LEO

In all activities she does excel,
she's on top scholastically as well

LINDA LOSEFNICKY

Being cheerful must be her motto.

JON OHDE

He stoops for nothing but the door.

FRANK OHLSEN

Once I thought nights were made for study, but now I know different.

MARCIA PETERSON

She packs all her troubles in a box,
then sits on the lid and laughs.

BECKY PALMER

There never was a minute
when Becky wasn't in it.

MARV PIPPERT

Lead me not into temptation,
but show me where it is.

VIRGIL PETTIT

I'll get there slowly but surely.

STEVE RAUB

Sometimes I sit and think, sometimes I just sit.

CYNTHIA ROBERTS

I chatter as I go and I go on forever.

CHERYL SCHLOTTERBECK

An innocent face, but you never can tell.

LANNY SCHROEDER

I don't talk much but I think plenty.

LYNDA TOMPKIN

She's witty, she's wise,
she's a terror for her size.

JERRY SHIVELY

Never put off until tomorrow what you can put off until the day after tomorrow.

JUDY WENGER

She has a heart for every joy,
but room for just one certain boy.

JEAN WIECK

It's a quiet worker who succeeds.

TOM WIESE

Full of life and mischief too, he likes to do things he shouldn't do.

JAMES WILSON

Professor Einstein--Dysart style.

RUTH WUNDER

I want to learn. I want to know.

Recessional	Miss Reda McNamee

CAROLE BAKER wills her ability to get by on very little sleep to anyone with light enough eyelids to do it.

JERRY BARTA wills his ability to play the trumpet to next year's trumpet section which will need a little ability.

JANE BODE wills her natural red hair to Glenda Petersen and Nancy Lorenz whose hair is far from red and natural PATSY BOTTOMLEY wills her quietness to Kaye Hite who is far from quiet.

DORIS BOWEN wills her interest in the U. S. army to Kathy Sinclair who hates it.

SUE BURGER wills her job as assistant janitor to anyone who is unfortunate enough to have a father as a janitor.

DAVID CALLAHAN wills his long curl in his hair to Mr. Woods who would look real cute with it

RONALD CHARMICHEAL wills his ability to get passing grades in English without studying to Reda McNamee who would like anything willed by Ron.

KATHY DENGILLER wills her pretty dyeless hair to Carol Hennessy who found out dyes don't work too well.

LAURA FLHR wills her long hair to anyone with enough patience to take care of it

EDWARD FELTS wills his ability not to run into curbs with his car to Mr. Hapter, just to embarrass him.

PAM FEUERBACH wills her ability to keep the same boyfriend all four years of high school to all those unfortunate ones who can't.

BARB FREDERICK wills her letter writing ability to Joan Karr who will be needing it next year

KAREN GRIMM wills her ability to stay out of trouble to Tim Schoonover who always seems to find himself in a mess with Mr. Voigts

MARK HALLBLING wills his ability to get along with girls to the freshmen boys who may want to try in future years.

COLLETTE HECKROTH wills her bass clarinet to her sister Betty who's pretty good at blowing

SUSAN HELM wills her position as editor of the Trojan Quill Staff to the Creative Writing Class who helped themselves to it.

JACK HENNINGS wills his shapely form in a girl's cheerleading outfit to some of the underclassmen boys who may have to act like one at a pep meeting in the future.

LARRY HITE wills his ability to read eight hundred and some words a minute to the students who can't seem to get even one book read each nine weeks.

CHUCK HIX wills to Randy Reed his ability to keep a straight face when Miss Weyer says, "Now I have a surprise for you."

CAROL HOLTZ wills her staunch position in the Democratic party to Gary Reed who hasn't gotten over Goldwater yet.

MIKE KLEIN wills his mechanical ability to the Drivers ed kids who can't change flat tires.

LINDA KONICEK wills her Bohemian accent to Leonita Fett whose talk and speech is very "prim and proper".

DENNY KUSEL wills his ability to get into trouble to anyone needing excitement.

CHARLES LARSEN wills his trumpet to his sister, Carol who would like to cram it down his throat.

LINDA LOSENICKY wills her natural gray streaks to Nancy Lenaburg who had to pay for hers.

JON OHDE wills his ability to get books out of the top locker to Cassie Felts.

FRANK OHLSEN wills his ability to get new cars to anyone who can afford it.

BECKY PALMER wills her cheerleading ability to Vicki Davis who is so active in physical ed anyway.

MARCIA PETERSON wills her long fingernails to anyone who bites theirs.

MARV PIPPERT wills his ability to look innocent to all the other mischievous guys.

VIRGIL PLATTI wills his ability to read all the magazines in study hall to Steve Hallberg who's ranking second to him.

STEVE RAUB wills his new convertible to Rex who hasn't gotten to drive it yet.

LANNY SCHROEDER wills her laugh to Mr. A who will never forget it anyway.

JERRY SHIVELY wills his long list of girlfriends to Marv Machacek whose list is long enough already.

LYNDA TOMPKIN wills her Traer beaus to Linda Sealock who wishes she had more.

JUDY WENGER wills her ability to drive to school to Lawrence Fowler who wishes he had the guts to try it.

JEAN WIECK wills her ability to get along with the teachers to Jay Older who needs to come up with something quick.

TOM WIESE wills his ability to do or say things in English class to whoever wants to try it.

JAMES WILSON wills his ability to pack groceries to the next guy replacing him at "Baders".

RUTH WUNDER wills her good grades in English to the rest of the seniors who would like to have them before this year's English grades come out.

CYNTHIA ROBERTS, CHERYL SCHLOTTERBECK, and LYN LEO will their ability to play first three chairs in clarinet section to the unfortunate people who have to play first clarinet next year.

All of us of
the 1965 TROJAN
Staff wish to thank the following merchants for their assistance in the production of the 1965 TROJAN.
